

Elliot Furniss

I grew up in Suffolk and have lived in Ipswich for 15 years.

For more than a decade, I was a reporter and news editor for the Ipswich Star and East Anglian Daily Times, getting to meet people across the county and tell their stories.

I now work as a communications specialist for the civil service.

My link with St Matthew's started through my wife, who is a teacher at the school, and now two of my three children are pupils here.

I feel closely connected to the school and believe strongly in the ethos and values that are reflected every time I spend time on site.
